Columbia Community Foundation Announces Five Scholarship Offerings

The Columbia Community Foundation is pleased to announce that applications are now open for several scholarships offered to High School Seniors graduating in 2013 with plans to attend a two or four year college, trade school, technical institute or other post-secondary education program. There are five scholarships offered:

Columbia Community Foundation Scholarship

- Open any Columbia Township resident
- 2013 high school graduate from any area high school
- At least two Columbia Community Foundation Scholarships in the amount of $2000 will be awarded

Lucille MacClellan Memorial Scholarship

- Open to any 2013 Columbia High School graduate aspiring to continue their education
- who has made significant contributions as a leader at school and in the community
- Two Lucille MacClellan Memorial Scholarships in the amount of $1000 will be awarded

Columbia Chamber of Commerce Scholarship

- Open to any 2013 graduating senior in the Chamber of Commerce service area including: Columbia, Midview and Keystone School districts
- Funded by the Columbia Chamber of Commerce, this scholarship's purpose is to acknowledge students who strive to become a business professional or possible future business owner
- One Columbia Chamber of Commerce Scholarship in the amount of $1500 will be awarded

Each of the scholarships requires an on-line application available on the Scholarships tab at www.columbiacommunityfoundation.org.

Scholarship recipients will be selected based upon their completion of an application, current transcript grades, and answers to the essay questions. All applications, including essays and supporting documents, must be received by April 1st.
