Columbia Community Foundation Completes Work on Beautification Project

The beautification project at the corner of Columbia and Royalton Roads sponsored by the Columbia Community Foundation has been completed.

Last summer, the Columbia Community Foundation approached the township trustees with a plan to beautify the corner, which had become overgrown and unsightly, and make it into a focal point for the entire community. The trustees quickly agreed to the plan and provided some logistical support.

Several individuals, organizations and local firms donated in excess of $10,000 in time, material or money to make the project a reality; Bert's Tree Service, The Columbia Garden Club, Cross Roads Asphalt, Davis Tree Farm, Emerald Forest Nursery, Forevergreen Spruce Farm, Four Keyse Restaurant, J&J Greenhouse, Kokosing Materials, Morton's Landscaping, Myron's Trucking, Ohio Valley Group, PGT Trucking, RBK Publishing Inc., Red Wagon Farms, Ross Equipment and Bobby Rundle all donated money, time equipment or materials to help make the project a reality.

The final touch, custom lighting for the Community Corner was installed by Dreamscapes Outdoor Lighting in time for the holidays.

The Columbia Community Foundation is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit public charity which provides funding for scholarships, and good works in the community.
