Columbia Community Foundation Scholarship Awarded

Grant Edward Ranchoff, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Ranchoff of West Rim Drive, has been awarded the 2012 Columbia Community Foundation Scholarship. He will use the $2000 award for his studies in Human Nutrition at The Ohio State University. Grant, who is also an Eagle Scout, graduated from Padua Franciscan High School on June 1st. He hopes to go on medical school and become a doctor.

The Columbia Community Foundation Scholarship is available to any resident of Columbia Township in Lorain County who is a current graduating high school senior aspiring to attend a two-year or four-year college, trade school, technical institute, or other post-secondary education program. Parents mark your calendars now to remind your senior to apply when the online application process for next year's scholarship opens in January. For additional information, visit the group's website at www.columbiacommunityfoundation.org.

The Columbia Community Foundation, a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit public charity organization, serves the citizens of Columbia Station, Ohio and neighboring communities through implementation of their charitable aspirations by awarding educational scholarships and community grants.
